

Figuring out the twin transition: think global, act local?

Monday 21 November 2022, 16:00 – 18:30

Physically at PSC Headquarters (C/Pallars 191, Barcelona), or via livestream

PROGRAMME

16:00 – 16:15

Welcome

Opening remarks

Maria João Rodrigues, President, Foundation for European Progressive Studies (FEPS)

Pau Solanilla, Director, Rafel Campalans Foundation

16:15 – 17:10

The EU and Northern Africa: together towards a twin transition?

Panel discussion, based on FEPS-FES policy brief, in cooperation with UNUCRIS

Reinhilde Bouckaert, Researcher in Energy policy, United Nations University

Mauro Santaniello, Associate Research Fellow and digital policy expert, United Nations University

Justin Nogarede, Senior Policy Analyst on Digital, Foundation for European Progressive Studies (FEPS)

Moderation: Kevin Le Merle, Project Officer, Foundation for European Progressive Studies (FEPS)

Q&A

17:10 – 17:20

Coffee break

Remote simultaneous interpretation will be available in Spanish and English

With the financial support of the European Parliament

17:20 – 18:20 From global to local: smart cities as an example for the twin transition?

Panel discussion

Laia Bonet, Deputy Mayor, Barcelona; Chair, Eurocities' Digital Forum

Aleksandr Ivancic, Partner & Senior Consultant, Aiguasol

Mireia Belil, Director, Bora Kasi Consultancy Firm

Moderation: Pau Solanilla, Director, Rafel Campalans Foundation

Q&A

18:20 – 18:30 Conclusion

Concluding remarks

Salvador Illa, First Secretary, Socialists' Party of Catalonia

18:30 – 20:00 Networking reception at Hotel Sallés Pere IV

Remote simultaneous interpretation will be available in Spanish and English

With the financial support of the European Parliament